The film takes audiences on the boy's extraordinary journey to the North Pole with the train's conductor (voice of Tom Hanks) where he receives an extraordinary gift only those who still believe in Santa can experience. "The Polar Express" will be shown as a general-fun film this holiday season.

OPENING SOON

"The Alps"

December 4, 2009

MacGillivray Freeman Films present a stirring and emotional film, full of adventure, courage, personal loss and family triumph. Filled with majestic views of Switzerland's natural beauty, The Alps follows the true-life story of mountaineer and journalist John Harlin, III, who sets out on an epic personal journey to climb the deadly north Face of Eiger, the steepest peak in all of Europe – 40 years after the same mountain claimed the life of his father, John Harlin, II.

Special Exhibits in the World Golf Hall of Fame:

The World Golf Hall of Fame honors and celebrates the world's greatest players and contributors to the game. A collaboration of 26 national and international golf organizations support the Hall of Fame, including the PGA TOUR, LPGA, USGA, PGA of America and Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews. The museum houses interactive exhibits and historic and personal artifacts and that tell the stories of its members and the game of golf. The Hall of Fame is open Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sundays from noon to 6 p.m. A round on the 18-hole natural grass putting course and one IMAX film are included in museum admission. For more information on the Hall of Fame, call 904-940-4123 or visit www.wgv.com.

NOW SHOWING

"Bob Hope: Shanks for the Memory" Featured Exhibit

"Bob Hope: Shanks for the Memory" is the Hall's featured member exhibition through 2010.

The exhibit offers the largest collection of Hope memorabilia ever available on public display in a single exhibit. Hundreds of photographs from the Hope collection complement rich storytelling alongside hundreds of artifacts that represent Hope's broad range of talents—from vaudeville to entertaining troops—and naturally, his passion for the game of golf.

From the specially-created Bob Hope Theater featuring some of his best-known golf stand up and skits to a variety of set pieces designed to reflect the different eras and locations significant to Hope's life – including Cleveland, New York, Hollywood, Palm Springs, Washington D.C.

and sites of USO shows around the world – guests can see how golf was woven throughout every facet in his life. The exhibition also looks at the various ways Hope championed the game, including the development and hosting of the PGA TOUR's Bob Hope Chrysler Classic, the impact he made as a fervent entertainer of U.S. Troops and much, much more. For more information, call 904-940-4123 or visit www.wgv.com.
